

Guess Who! (Unit 11: Verbals)

Set up just as you did for Guess Who! in Unit 10.

Don't let anyone see the back of your cards. Don't look at others' cards.

Generally, follow the rules of Guess Who in Unit 10 (w189).

Specifically. . .

1. Tell your partner the sentence and the parenthesized target word.
2. Your partner modifies the sentence to 1) provide the correct name of the person, and 2) use the target verb with another appropriate word. The partner's sentence must be the same as the sentence on the back of the card.

Examples

A: This person thought about himself becoming a reporter. (imagine)

B: David imagined himself becoming a reporter.

A: This person claimed that picking up Marsha at her apartment slipped his mind. (forget)

B: David claimed that he forgot to pick up Marsha at her apartment.
